Complaint of

UNITED AIR LINES, INC.

against

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION AND NATIONAL IMPLEMENTING AUTHORITIES

under 49 U.S.C. § 41310

Docket OST-98-4030

ORDER GRANTING WAIVER

On July 8, 1998, United Air Lines, Inc., filed a complaint under 49 U.S.C. § 41310 against the European Commission (the Commission) and certain European national implementing authorities (of the Governments of Germany, Denmark, Norway, and Sweden) (the Commission and these governments are referred to collectively as the Respondents). United argues that sanctions against the Respondents are necessary to redress actions proposed by the Commission against United's alliances with Deutsche Lufthansa AG (Lufthansa) and Scandinavian Airline System (SAS) which will preclude United and its alliance partners from exercising rights specifically provided for under the open-skies aviation agreements between the United States and the individual European countries involved. United argues that such action is essential to ensure the continued viability of the U.S. Government's open-skies policy in Europe.¹

Section 41310 provides that the Department shall approve, deny, dismiss, or set a complaint for hearing, or institute other procedures proposing remedial action, within 60 days after receipt of the complaint. We may extend the period for taking action up to 90 days from the date of the complaint if we conclude that it is likely that the complaint can be resolved satisfactorily through negotiations. We may further extend the action deadline up to 180 days from receipt of the complaint, in 30-day increments, if we find that intergovernmental negotiations have progressed to a point that a satisfactory resolution of the complaint appears imminent.

By Order 98-7-16, the Department invited all interested parties to file answers to United's complaint in Docket OST-98-4030. Deutsche Lufthansa AG, Northwest Airlines, Delta Air Lines, Scandinavian Airlines System, American Airlines, the City and County of San Francisco, the City of Chicago and the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority, and the Economic Strategy Institute filed answers. American and United filed replies. Northwest filed a rejoinder.²

By Orders 98-9-2, 98-10-7, 98-11-5, and 98-12-4 the Department extended, to facilitate a negotiated resolution to the issues raised, the period for taking action on United's complaint to the extent permitted under the statute, i.e. through January 4, 1999. By Orders 98-12-35, 99-3-5, and 99-6-5 the Department granted waivers by United of the statutory deadline through July 29, 1999.

On July 16, 1999, United agreed to an additional limited waiver of the statutory deadline through October 27, 1999. United notes that the European Commission continues to conduct a broad review of the issues that led to United's complaint and has reopened its competition analysis with respect to relevant markets. In this regard, United states that it has recently been requested to provide the Commission with additional data. To provide additional time for the Commission to continue its review of the issues, and to afford a further opportunity for negotiations to resolve the matter, United states that it agrees to waive the statutory deadline through October 27, 1999.

After careful consideration of United's request and other relevant factors, we believe that the public interest will be best served by granting United's waiver and deferring the deadline for action on the complaint through October 27, 1999.

ACCORDINGLY,

1. We grant the request of United Air Lines, Inc. for waiver of the statutory deadline in order to defer through October 27, 1999, the period for taking action on its complaint in Docket OST-98-4030; and
