Washington, D.C. 20006 Motion of the Metropolitan Airport Authority of Rock Island County, Illinois for leave to file an otherwise unauthorized Petition to retain Chicago O'Hare Slots at Quad City International Airport. The Authority urges the Department not to allow AMR to proceed with strategy of major expansion at the expense of consumers served by smaller airports such as Quad City International Airport. Specifically, the Authority requests that the Department withhold from any alternative use the Chicago O'Hare slots now utilized American Eagle for service to Quad City International Airport. The Authority requests that it be allowed 180 days to obtain a carrier to utilize these slots to provide Quad City-O'Hare service. The Department could accomplish this by awarding the slots directly to the Authority, or by withholding them from use by American Eagle and then awarding them to a carrier that will provide replacement service. The Authority requests that any slots not used by another carrier to provide such service within 180 days be returned to a pool for serving smaller communities. In no case should AMR or American Eagle be allowed to shift any of these slots to serve other markets.
