NOTE: United states that it continues to serve a number of the above listed markets via Mexico City, pursuant to a code-share arrangement with Transportes Aeromar (Aeromar). Under the February 1999 aviation agreement between the United States and Mexico, it is no longer necessary for United to hold individual city-pair designations where it operates code-share services beyond its Mexican gateway to interior points in Mexico (see Order 99-6-6). United states that under these circumstances, each of these transborder designations is dormant. United continues to hold the necessary authorizations to serve these markets via Mexico City.

¹ Pursuant to Order 88-10-30, U.S. carriers certificated under the U.S.-Mexico Air Transport Agreement are required to notify the Department when discontinuing service on a U.S.-Mexico city pair for 90 days or longer. We have directed carriers to file such notices as soon as the decision not to inaugurate service or to discontinue service (other than seasonally) is made, but in no case later than the 91st day of dormancy.
